IW107: Value Investing
Certificate Course

Let us help you build your Resume Portfolio - because your work deserves to be seen… while you focus on building your skills for service, leadership, and career growth.

Course Description

This course is designed for adult learners who want to learn the principles of value investing and the strategies used to identify strong companies trading at attractive prices. Learners explore how to evaluate a company's financial health, interpret earnings and cash-flow statements, and recognize when a stock is undervalued. The course also covers how to think like a value investor, assess market conditions, and avoid common pitfalls hidden in financial reports. Designed for beginners and developing investors, this course equips students with practical tools to make disciplined, research-based investment decisions.

What You Will Learn

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Understand the philosophy and history of value investing
- Identify undervalued companies using simple research tools
- Read and interpret basic financial statements
- Evaluate company fundamentals, competitive advantages, and long-term potential
- Recognize intrinsic value vs. market price
- Apply margin-of-safety principles
- Build a beginner-friendly value-investing strategy
